Online learning If children are self-isolating but are well, work is available again on our website. If you have any problems, please get in touch.	This week's Gospel John 2: 1-11 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.
Reading Challenge Well done Emilja Yr5 on achieving her Bronze Reading Challenge Award. Imaan Yr1 has read and reviewed 30 books so has achieved Silver Reading Challenge Award. Congratulations!	Curriculum Ambassadors This term we are launching our Curriculum Ambassadors. They will help us to evaluate each subject. On Thursday our Geography Ambassador Alfie B has worked with Mrs Bibby. He said, 'The Geography work I've seen was amazing! I really liked the work on maps.' As well as interviewing pupils, Alfie looked at books and Geography displays. Thanks very much Alfie! Over the next few weeks, our Curriculum Ambassadors will focus on Design Technology and PE.
Funky Fingers The first session of this after school group which encourages fine motor skill development was very well attended. Due to unprecedented demand, Miss Dunderdale will run the group again next half term. Thank you Miss Dunderdale.	Citizenship and British Values Year 2 will be celebrating Martin Luther King Jr Day on Tuesday. On January 27th classes 5, 6 & 7 will commemorate World Holocaust Day.
School Faith-life This year we are reviewing our Mission Statement. After Monday's Collective Worship each class discussed their ideas for a Mission Statement that relates more to our school saint, John the Baptist. Please discuss this at home and if you have any suggestions or ideas, share them with us.
Sports News Pupils are enjoying our after school sports club this term. Thank you Mr Brown for helping them to improve their skills and fitness.	Term dates Please be reminded of our Spring Term dates: half-term Monday 14th – Friday 18th February end of term Friday 1st April
