Please see class teachers for more information.

Leavers' Mass

We will be celebrating Mass at 9:15am on Wednesday 17th July. It is a great way to say goodbye and celebrate Year 6's time at St John's. Parents and carers are most welcome to join us. Please see separate letter.

School Summer Holiday

We break up for our summer holiday on Thursday 18th July at 1:30pm. I hope you have a restful, relaxing holiday. School starts again on Tuesday 3rd September. Children and Family Wellbeing service are offering a number of free activities over the summer. See separate information.

Free School Meals

The Department of Work and Pensions Household Support Fund has been extended so that families in receipt of free school meals will receive vouchers to cover the holiday period. These vouchers will be sent to the email address registered with school on Thursday 18th July. Please contact the school office if you have any issues.

Leavers' Celebrations

Class 7 are going bowling on Wednesday 17th July. After school on that day they will have their leaving party in the school hall. Please see separate letter.

SATs Results

Class 7 pupils will receive their SATs results and report today. We are so pleased with their hard work and their brilliant results.

Mental Health Webinar

The MHSTs are hosting a parent webinar/workshop on the 8th August to discuss children's mental health in the digital age. Please see poster below for details.

Holiday and Activities Food Programme

Information about the local HAF offer is being sent directly to parents and carers this year. Please look out for an email that includes the vouchers.
